For those of you who want to hear more about Purgatory, this will be the last of a three-part series on the topic.

There are several saints who were granted visions of Heaven, Hell, and Purgatory during their time on earth. St. Catherine of Genoa and St. Gertrude are two that immediately come to mind. The one saint I will focus on is one of the more recent saints – St. Faustina. If you have ever prayed the Divine Mercy Chaplet, you can thank her for that and for the Divine Mercy image of Jesus we have in our church; it is the image that was given to her by Jesus.

In her book, Divine Mercy in My Soul: The Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, she talks about Purgatory at great length throughout the diary. Following is one description of Purgatory:

Once I was summoned to the judgment [seat] of God. I stood alone before the Lord. Jesus appeared such as we know Him during His Passion. After a moment, His wounds disappeared except for five, those in His hands, His feet and His side. Suddenly I saw the complete condition of my soul as God sees it. I could clearly see all that is displeasing to God. I did not know that even the smallest transgressions will have to be accounted for. What a moment! Who can describe it? To stand before the Thrice-Holy God! Jesus asked me, Who are you? I answered, "I am Your servant, Lord." You are guilty of one day of fire in PURGATORY. I wanted to throw myself immediately into the flames of PURGATORY, but Jesus stopped me and said, Which do you prefer, suffer now for one day in PURGATORY or for a short while on earth? I replied, "Jesus, I want to suffer in PURGATORY, and I want to suffer also the greatest pains on earth, even if it were until the end of the world." Jesus said, One [of the two] is enough; you will go back to earth, and there you will suffer much, but not for long; you will accomplish My will and My desires, and a faithful servant of Mine will help you to do this. Now, rest your head on My bosom, on My heart, and draw from it strength and power for these sufferings because you will find neither relief nor help nor comfort anywhere else. Know that you will have much, much to suffer, but don't let this frighten you; I am with you. (Diary, 36)

Here is my bottom line on Purgatory: The Catholic Church believes this state to be true, so we should believe it exists. However, the state of purgatory is temporary, and it ultimately means we will be in Heaven for eternity. Do not be afraid; Jesus is with you!

MODESTY, SILENCE, REVERENCE

Fr. Bill Hoffman

This is the most appropriate posture when it comes to ultimate truth. Jesus proclaims to Pilate; "...for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." Jesus testified to the truth with his words and with his life. He is Christ the King.

Jesus was a servant leader, and his main mission was to bring truth and show people the way to love. How did he use his power and knowledge? He used it to lift others up ...to lift them out of despair, poverty, fear and isolation. His style? = humility. That's not what comes to mind when one thinks of a king.

As we proclaim Christ as our King that means we freely take up the task of being loving, kind, and compassionate so as to reflect those qualities of Jesus ... to be leaders in service, to give witness to the truth of the Good News, and to show others the way to love. With modesty, silence, and reverence we build up that kingdom of hope, and a kingdom of justice for all.

Viva Cristo Rey! Hail, Christ the King!

THANKSGIVING

"It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks..." Sound familiar? The preface to the Eucharistic prayer calls us to "always and everywhere" give thanks...thanks to our God. Psalm 116,12 "How can I repay the Lord for all his goodness to me?" The debt of gratitude we owe for God's faithful love can be repaid only in a two-sided coin: turning to God in thanksgiving and doing for others what has been done for us.

Before the plates of food are passed at the table take time for a prayer of blessing ...make it a special prayer of blessing and thanksgiving ...perhaps invite all those at the table to express what they are thankful for. As a country and as a people of faith we have much to be thankful for.

Grace before the Meal: Loving Father, we thank you for you countless blessings, especially for the gift of your Son, for the Church, for our faith, and now for this meal. Bless this food and the love that unites us. Keep us for ever grateful and generous in your service. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

In partnership with parents, guardians, and the parish, we seek to help children deepen their relationship with Jesus, understand their Catholic faith, and participate in our Prince of Peace Catholic Community.

Happy Thanksgiving!

We are thankful for faith, family, friends and so much more!
