Deacon Jeff's Corner

Just four days ago, we were celebrating Christmas, and now we are staring at 2025 this week...whew! We also appropriately celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family (Jesus, Mary and Joseph) this weekend. Why not, when we have just heard of all the adversity they faced in finding a place for Mary to give birth to Jesus, should we not hear of Mary and Joseph losing their 12-year-old son – for three days before finding him? In today's world, that may have been headline news!

With the new year comes the infamous "New Year's resolutions". We all may have them, but how many of these resolutions are ever kept? Consider the following:

As one who knows virtually nothing about music, I would like you to vision listening to a large orchestra, noticing how all the instruments seem to meld into one. That level of achievement takes many years of practice and instruction. If just one instrument in orchestra is out of tune or plays the wrong note, the entire piece can sound much different.

Compare that analogy to our faith life, wherever that may be for you. Our faith lives can resemble that of a musician. We need not just guidance, but practice when it comes to our faith. Think of God as the orchestra conductor and the many saints and holy people we may experience as our instructors. One of the great saints of our time, St. (Padre) Pio once said, "I am an instrument in divine hands; an instrument which only succeeds in serving some purpose when it is handled by the divine Craftsman."

Praying 2025 may a year for all of us to grow in our faith – together. That is certainly a resolution that is worth keeping!

Deacon Jeff

May Your Holy Family Be Blessed in 2025

By: Theresa Williams

I remember once at a family reunion when our youngest daughter was pretty little, I lost sight of her and started to panic. I couldn't see her in the shelter. I ran to the baseball diamond and playground. She wasn't there. By now I had a couple more people looking for her and finally she was found. Low and behold she was safe and sound sitting next to her uncle inside the shelter where she was the whole time but was hidden from my sight because of her small frame. Although this probably happened within 15 minutes, I can relate to Mary and Joseph's worry at Jesus missing and them having to travel back to Jerusalem. It's hard to imagine them not knowing where Jesus was for three days. He was safe and sound in His Father's house the whole time. The Holy Family was finally reunited and boy that must have been a joyous moment!

This was only one of the numerous trials that the Holy Family faced throughout their lives on earth. Many families face tough times just like we know the Holy Family did. Whether it's hardships, loss, disagreements, or division, Jesus gave us the answer to how families can survive those hard times. Love! It's love! Love brings healing and can help restore relationships. Love is what drives parents to make sacrifices for their family. Love is what helps children obey their parents and then care for them as they grow old. Love encourages family members to serve each other. Love can bring peace and forgiveness.

At the Penance service this year we heard the reading from Corinthians. "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails." May your holy family be blessed with love in 2025!

If you are interested in booking the Red Sanctuary, Blue Marian, Amber St. Michael & the Emerald St. Joseph candles or booking a weekday or weekend Mass thru December 2025, please contact the parish office at 468-5718.

In partnership with parents, guardians, and the parish, we seek to help children deepen their relationship with Jesus, understand their Catholic faith, and participate in our Prince of Peace Catholic Community.

Happy New Year

Prince of Peace Religious Education wishes each of you and your families many blessings as we begin 2025.

Together we offer you this New Year's prayer:

Holy Father, God of our yesterdays, our today, and our tomorrows. We praise You for Your unequalled greatness. Thank You for the year behind us and for the year ahead. Help us in Your new year to fret less and laugh more. To teach our children to laugh by laughing with them. To teach others to love by loving them. Knowing, when Love came to the stable in Bethlehem, He came for us. So that Love could be with us and we could know You. May we share Love with others.

Help us to hear and see You in every sunrise and sunset, in the stories of our ancestors, and the dreams of our children. Help us to stop and listen so that we may know You better. We rejoice in the world You loved into being.

Thank You for another new year and for new chances every day. We pray for peace, for light, and for hope, that we might spread them to others. Forgive us for falling short this past year. We leave the irreparable past in your hands and step out into the unknown New Year knowing You will go with us. We accept Your gift of a new year, and we rejoice in what's ahead, depending on You to help us do exactly what You want.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
