Deacon Jeff's Corner

In the month of the Holy Souls, I would like to continue to offer my thoughts on the dogma of Purgatory. This is a very difficult subject to understand, and for many Catholics, to simply believe. Our Protestant and Evangelical friends have dismissed this state of the soul to not exist; that there is only Heaven and Hell, and that we are judged either worthy of Heaven or doomed to Hell for eternity.

First, my opinion only: Purgatory, a "state" of the soul being purified or perfected to be in Heaven, makes logical sense to me. For us to be in Heaven, we need to be perfect. We need to love everyone even those we didn't care for on earth. If we are not perfect, Purgatory is the process or state of being made perfect. My non-Catholics friends tell me all the time that Purgatory is not necessary; all that is necessary is that you accept Jesus as your Savior. Well ok, I can buy that, but is that all we need to do? Don't we need to live a life that says to Jesus – and to others – "Jesus is my Savior!"?

Next, let me offer you one piece from the Bible. Refer to 2Maccabees 12:44. It may make more sense to read the book of Maccabees to get more background, but verse 44 reads: "For if he were not expecting that those who had fallen would rise again it would have superfluous and foolish to pray for the dead." Huh, praying for the dead? If there is no Purgatory, there is no need to pray for the dead. Those in Heaven are already in eternal joy, and those in Hell are in eternal damnation, so 2 Maccabees gives strong evidence for this intermediate state of Purgatory.

I will give a bit more evidence next week to complete this series on whom we pray for this month. I pray every day for many of my loved ones; family, friends, parishioners, really anyone whom I've ever known, that they may be with Jesus and all the saints in Heaven. However, if they need it, I would like to hope and think my prayers for them are helping!

Deacon Jeff

Be Vigilant!

In partnership with parents, guardians, and the parish, we seek to help children deepen their relationship with Jesus, understand their Catholic faith, and participate in our Prince of Peace Catholic Community.

Parents are called to be the first teachers of faith to their children. A child's attitude toward Mass, the sacraments, prayer, service to others and a Christian lifestyle grows out of their parent's example and attitude. We ask you to please continue to pray for our parents, catechists, and students. Our faith formation goal is to help students deepen their relationship with Jesus and instill in them a love of our faith. Through a variety of hands-on activities and discussion, we seek to help them understand what it means to be Catholic and participate in this wonderful community of Prince of Peace.

Jesus Before Pontius Pilate

Dec. 1 - First Sunday of Advent
Jesus Will Return

I struggled writing the reflection on today's readings. At first glance, it seemed more about gloom and doom! "Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to stand before the Son of Man." Lk 21:36. Jesus said that no one knows when the end of time would be; He was right. For us today, while we might be deeply concerned about the extreme state of our world, the real issue is about us and the end of our lives. We have the free will to choose to be prepared or not. Are we ready? My hope is that for all of us it would be a resounding yes!

How can we continue to be ready? Faith and belief are necessary for salvation. We say the Creed every Sunday; "I believe in one God...one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins...the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come." Do we truly believe it? Remember Christ's love for us; He has already paid the ultimate price for our salvation; "one sacrifice for sins." Heb 10:14. As a result of Christ's sacrifice on the Cross, we now have eternal salvation.

We have the Sacraments available to all of us. Just like exercising to strengthen the muscles in our body to maintain our physical health, we need to also exercise our spiritual health daily through prayer, express gratitude for Christ's sacrifice and love for our neighbors, share our gifts, and the fruits from the Holy Spirit...

The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord CCC 1831

The twelve Holy Fruits of the Spirit are: charity (love), joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, chastity. CCC 1832

Because of God's love, mercy and forgiveness, Jesus opened the door to our eternal salvation.

Have FAITH and PRAY knowing God is always with us!
